URBAN LIVING IN CEDAR RAPIDS

When you choose to live in the center of it all - amazing performance venues, locally owned restaurants and bars, arts and culture and more - everything is an extension of your living room. With each new housing development, demand for urban living in Cedar Rapids increases, and there are some pretty incredible spaces available to call home!

Cedar Rapids is vibrant, lively and welcoming. As the second largest city in Iowa, it is known as a hub for great theater, live music, museums and more. The area is home to family-friendly sports teams including baseball, hockey and indoor arena football. A growing culinary and craft brewery scene will tempt your taste buds. Local events are plentiful and can be found throughout the core districts including the Czech Village/New Bohemia District, Downtown District, Kingston Village and MedQuarter Regional Medical District, among the greater metro area as well!

Downtown

CEDAR RAPIDS

Amenities

Downtown Cedar Rapids is full of life! The heart of our high-rise business community also features a vibrant arts and culture community, at the center of which is Greene Square bordered by the award-winning Cedar Rapids Public Library, the Cedar Rapids Museum of Art and the American Discovery Trail.

The Downtown District is also home to Iowa's most romantic restaurant, Cobble Hill. So wet your whistle, fill your belly at one of the many unique, locally owned restaurants, enjoy the exciting nightlife hot spots, and entertainment venues including the US Cellular Center, Theater Cedar Rapids and the Paramount Theater.

The Downtown District is also where you'll find Cedar Rapids Downtown Farmers Markets, Market After Dark and more free, community events, concerts and festivals.

CZECH VILLAGE
SSMID
 NEW BOHEMIA

Czech Village / New Bohemia DISTRICT

Amenities

Established by immigrants, the Czech Village/New Bohemia District had suffered economic decline for many years and was nearly destroyed by record flooding in 2008. Despite these hardships, the rebuilding of this area became a focal point for unprecedented urban and civic renewal. Fast becoming the city's most well-known district – the area is a magnet for citizens, tourists, and businesses, with NewBo City Market and the National Czech & Slovak Museum and Library anchoring both sides of the river. It is home to exciting events, entertainment, dining, and shopping.
