Cedar Rapids, IA, January 20 — The kings of outrageous glam metal are roaring back into Iowa as Steel Panther brings their Twenty Twenty $ex Tour to Club 5 on March 18, 2026 at 8:00 p.m. Known for their high-octane performances and unapologetically wild stage antics, Steel Panther promises a night that Cedar Rapids won't soon forget.

Fans eager to join the party can snag their seats when tickets go on sale Friday, January 23 at 10:00 a.m. and can be purchased online at www.creventslive.com or at the box office.

About Steel Panther

For the uninitiated, Steel Panther was formed in 2000 and is Michael Starr (lead singer), Satchel (guitarist), Stix Zadinia (drums) and Spyder (bass). Hailing from Los Angeles, the epicenter for rock n' roll in all its debauchery and glamour, Steel Panther has established themselves as the world's premier party band, melding hard rock virtuosity with parody and criminally good looks. With five full-length albums, touring across the world, platinum-level You Tube status and high-profile television appearances such as Jimmy Kimmel Live, Larry King Now, and FOX NFL, the band just keeps getting bigger.

Rolling Stone avowed, “There’s a reason Steel Panther have transcended their origins as a cover band playing the Sunset Strip,” while Metal Sucks declared, “Steel Panther’s concept is genius...their songwriting is...preposterously snappy – and relatable.
