Per Mar Security Services ranked 14th on SDM 100 List

DAVENPORT, Iowa – Per Mar Security Services has earned the No. 14 spot on the 2026 SDM 100, an annual ranking of the nation’s leading security system integrators. This recognition highlights Per Mar’s steady growth and its commitment to providing reliable security for both homeowners and businesses across the Midwest.

“I am proud of the Per Mar team for again being in the top 20 of this prestigious list. Our focus on investing in our field operations and sales teams to continue momentum is paying off. We look forward to continuing our growth through our Service Excellence program and continued focus on monitored video and AI based offerings to protect our customers, their property and employees,” said Chris Edwards, President of Electronic Security.

The SDM 100 ranks companies based on their system integration revenue, covering everything from initial design and project management to installation and ongoing support. For Per Mar, this ranking serves as a benchmark for maintaining consistent standards and high-quality service year after year.
